

Various activities are being organized under the Hunar Initiative under the Department of Technical Education Skill Development and Employment. The purpose of which is to enable the woman to economically, socially and personal through their skills and wishes. Under this initiative, women will be provided training resources and opportunities so that they can bring self-reliance and prosperity to their family and in addition.